

cup. 21. 2. 36/32

The LOYAL Bradford Volunteers.

Tune, " And a Fighting we will go."

FOR Loyalty we now are met,
Come Brothers at my call,
And in my Chorus bear a part,
Nay join me one and all,
*And our lives we will lay down,
Lay down, lay down,
To support great George our KING.*

In BRADFORD Dale there yet remain,
Some Loyal Hearts of Oak,
Who ne'er against their Church or King,
Have either thought or spoke,
But their lives they will, &c.

Great-Britain ne'er can happier be,
On any other plan;
In spite of what the Taylor writ,
About the Rights of Man,
Then our lives we will, &c.

A change of Ministry they say,
Is what the country wishes,
Yet half an eye may plainly see,
They want the loaves and fishes,
But our lives we will, &c.

Like dogs at bull some had a pull,
At worthy loyal Pitt,
Yet undismay'd he soon repaid,
Their malice and their wit,
But his life he will lay down, &c.

To end our song with Loyalty,
This toast let's drink and sing,
May every British Heart repeat
God bless our CHURCH and KING.
*And our lives we will lay down,
Lay down, lay down,
To support great George our KING.*
